MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

The defendants have moved to continue the pretrial motion deadline currently set for July 30, 2010. Filing No. 12. Defense counsel explains the defendant needs additional time to review the discovery received from the government. The government does not oppose the defendant's motion. Based on the showing set forth in the defendant's motion, the court finds the motion should be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

- 1) The defendant's unopposed motion to continue, (filing no. 12), is granted and the defendant's pretrial motions and briefs shall be filed on or before August 20, 2010.
- 2) The ends of justice will be served by granting defendant's motions to continue the pretrial motion deadline, and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial, and the additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, the time between July 30, 2010 and August 20, 2010, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirements of the Speedy Trial Act, for the reason that the parties require additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, the novelty and complexity of the case, and the fact that the failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).
- 3) The trial of this case remains set to commence on September 7, 2010 before Judge Warren K. Urbom.

DATED this 30th day of July, 2010.
